Robert Wells Ritchie, author, and Mrs. Ritchie are here for a brief visit. Carmel is not new to them.

William S. Cooper will play a prominent character in "The Yellow Jacket." He is on his way here from Minneapolis.

The Van Rippers will not be here this year. Owing to the grave illness of Mr. Ordway, father of Mrs. Van Ripper, their Western journey was abandoned.

Theodore S. Solomons, his three children and housekeeper have taken a house here for two months. Mr. Solomons is a literary man. Only recently one of the big moving picture concerns accepted two of his scenarios.

Despondent over his wife's illness and worry over financial matters is said to have caused Max Eichrodt, 76 years old, to take his own life, last Wednesday. Before her marriage Mrs. Eichrodt was Miss Caroline Hancock.

Professor Vernon L. Kellogg will shortly resign from Stanford, to accept a position in Washington, D. C.

Miss Lyn J. Quick of Los Angeles, head designer in the millinery department of Ville de Paris, is a guest here of Miss B. Gaston, also of Los Angeles, who has the Rask cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Doulton are again occupying their cottage here. They came down from Santa Barbara, and will be here all summer.

Mrs. Laura Bride Powers, long a prominent member and officer of the California Landmarks League, was registered at Pine Inn last week.

Miss Ursula Hooper and Chateau Johnson are to be married in San Francisco on July 3.

Fishing Tackle: large variety at Carmel News Co.

The Newberrys will again make their home in Carmel. They will begin building at once. The place at the Highlands is on the market.

A. Coleman, a newspaper man of wide experience, has rented the Munger house for six months, and has an option to purchase.

Mission Tea House to Open Saturday

Many Carmel visitors and residents are planning to attend the opening of the unique little tea house near Carmel Mission, on Saturday of this week, and to assist in the Spanish fete.

The Mission Tea House, located on the property of the Mission, has been the object of much interest to many casual visitors as well as artists, who have been sketching it, during its erection. It is a reconstruction of the original adobe house on the rancho close by the church.

Miss Claribel Haydock will conduct the enterprise. She is planning a series of summer events, which will include dances of old Spain, music and the celebration of Spanish fete days.

A program has been arranged for opening day which includes music by prominent musicians of Monterey and other places. Miss Marie Antonio Field will sing in Spanish costume.

Close to the Tea House stands the pear orchard planted in Serra's time. Here and there adobe ruins of the old mission buildings and quadrangle are standing, and old Spanish cross, a short distance from the Tea House, marks the room where Padre Serra lived and labored and died.

Opening day should be a gala occasion.

To Raise Funds for Mission Restoration

L. S. Slevin has announced his acceptance of the chairmanship of the Mission Restoration Campaign Committee for Carmel. He will immediately form a committee of local citizens to assist in establishing and raising this city's quota.

It would be an irreparable mistake to permit our glorious old landmark to fall into ruin. Every year thousands of people come to visit Carmel Mission. Already this year a greater number than ever before have come, no doubt due to the restoration movement throughout the State. People of the East have a great regard for historical places. Surely every Californian should have the same or greater regard for the missions and Carmelites for their own mission.

Within a few days a local headquarters will be established.

As soon as the committee organizes active work to gather in funds will begin.

That Grand and Glorious Feeling

When the long day's work is done and your thoughts begin to drift homeward, wouldn't you be happy, as you headed for the fireside, to know that you were nestled among the healthy fragrance of the pines and the pure air of the sea.

Put a house on that Carmel lot of yours. It will bring you a satisfactory income. Plans and specifications submitted.

The Dance Will be the Big Thing

The original plans for the local Fourth of July celebration have been abandoned. The primary object of the Carmel Firemen in their desire to promote the celebration was to raise funds to go toward the purchase of an alarm system. This being the case, after the enthusiasm of the first plan had worn off, it was realized that it would be best to devote all their energies to one or two affairs.

It has been decided to go ahead with the dance on Monday evening, July 5, and in conjunction therewith E. H. Lewis and a committee have been elected to take charge of the refreshment end of the affair. It is possible that should there be a large number of people in the city that day, an "eat" tent will be conducted during the daytime.

There were other reasons which made it appear unwise to proceed with the original plans. Monterey is to have a three day affair, and on the afternoon of July 5 Douglas Fairbanks and his band of Arizona cowboys will give an exhibition of riding stunts at Pebble Beach.

Tickets for the dance will be on sale shortly, and every resident and property owner is expected to invest.

For summer visitors, The Pine Cone three months for 40 cents.

Large Audiences for Summer Plays

Never before, in the ten years that the Forest Theatre has been giving summer plays, has the general interest been as keen as it is this year. In person and by letter inquiry is being made as to dates of presentation, names of plays, who are producers, and for tickets.

For the two performances of "The Yellow Jacket," Friday and Saturday, July 2 and 3, the sale of seats opened last Saturday at the Book Shop. Producer John N. Hilliard has the play well in hand.

The children's play, "Snow White," to be given on July 23 and 24, is attracting the attention of the heads of child's organizations throughout the State, and we may expect an unusually large attendance on those dates. Gordon Davis, who will coach the play, will be here in a few days.

The revival of Shakespearean drama in Europe and the East, in a large measure determined the play committee in its selection of "The Merry Wives of Windsor" for the August production. Herbert Heron is getting together a splendid cast for the play, and the production should draw two big houses.

We Are Still For Him

Senator Warren G. Harding of Ohio is the Republican nominee for President. Many people have called at the Pine Cone office to condole with and "josh" the editor because Hiram W. Johnson was defeated.

We have nothing to apologize for. We are proud of the fight that Johnson put up. Two years from next November we will return him to the United States Senate, and four years from now another convention will be glad to nominate a man of the character and attainments of Hiram Warren Johnson.

"If you have a bit of news,
Send it in.
Or a joke that will amuse,
Send it in.
An incident that's true,
A bit of stuff that's new.
We want to hear from you.

A Talk About Man's Best Friend

On Monday evening last the regular meeting of the Hillside Reading Circle was held at Grey Gables, with a large attendance.

Those present enjoyed a rare treat, in a talk on Alaska and its famous dogs, by Mrs. Darling, who has made us acquainted with "Baldy of Nome," in her book of that name.

She told of the life in Nome, after the last steamer departed in the fall, when everything assumed a monotonous round, wearing alike to the patience and the nerves.

The lack of fresh fruit was a deprivation, but one enterprising individual succeeded in raising four heads of lettuce and four onions, which he displayed for sale reposing on a hotwater bag in a blanket-covered basket.

Mrs. Darling's description of the gathering of the finest dogs, noted for their speed and endurance, and their shipment to France, where they did wonderful war work, was thrilling and stirred the patriotism of her hearers.

A social hour followed the talk. The Reading Circle is open to visitors as well as residents, there being no membership requirements.

Cailles in December, 1916, arrived in France and enlisted as a private. He made an excellent record as a soldier. At one time when all the officers of his company had been killed, he took command and led the men in a charge. He was decorated for this act of bravery by the French Government.
